

COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

I will treat everyone fairly within the context of the activity, regardless of ability, gender, ethnic origin, religion or economic status.

I will act with integrity in performing all my duties with my players, their parents, and the local baseball association.

I will strive to be well prepared so that my coaching duties are carried out with competence and I will continue to seek ways to increase my coaching abilities.

I will display the highest standards of personal conduct and project a favorable image of our sport and of coaching.

I will act at all times in the best interest of the development of the players and I will direct comments or criticism at the performance rather than the athlete.

I will respect the rights, dignity and worth of every player and I will support the principals of fair play.

I will treat opponents and officials with respect, both in victory and defeat and encourage my players to act accordingly.

I will support the role of the umpires in providing judgment to ensure that games are conducted fairly and according to established rules.

I will accept responsibility for the conduct of the team and actively discourage inappropriate behavior.

I will do my best to ensure the safety of the players within the limits of my control.

I have read and will uphold the Baseball Coaching Code of Conduct as stated above
